Shuster Joins Constituents in Rally against Democrat Health Care Bill

Washington, DC – Earlier today, Congressman Shuster joined a rally which took place at the Capitol Building against the Democrats’ health care bill.

During the rally, Shuster spoke to dozens of activists from the 9th district and across Pennsylvania who descended on Washington, DC in advance of tomorrow’s House vote on health care reform.

“The American people have been telling Congress for over a year that they don’t want this big government takeover of health care,” Shuster said. “Today, thousands of Americans, including many of my constituents came to the Capitol on their own to make their voices heard again before tomorrow’s vote.”

“I join my constituents here today and the thousands back in Pennsylvania who oppose this bill,” Shuster added.
